Expansion in 30 Industries

Fifty manufacturing developments, ranging from chocolate syrup to Columbia steel, piled $35,325,000 additional investment into Los Angeles county industry last month.

Twenty new manufacturing operations were announced last month, representing a $2,443,000 outlay for property, buildings and equipment. Nearly 500 new jobs will be created. October also brought 30 expansion projects, worth $32,882,000 and providing employment for 1426 additional workers.

October's enterprises included these fields: heating and insulation, wood products, building materials, tools, electric motors, oil field equipment, research engineering, publishing, castings, machine products, and chemicals.

Heroine and Father Take Part in Event

Ruth Oriani, her father Alfred Oriani and her brother James, were among the guests of honor in the Los Angeles Armistice night parade last Thursday.

Ruth, 17-year-old heroine who saved a 2-year-old boy from a tar pit near here recently, was accorded a place of honor in the parade, with her father and brother, both Navy veterans, beside her. They also sat with the other guests of honor in the Coliseum, to review the marchers.

Two C.O.C. Wells Are to Be Deepened

Deepening of two more oil wells owned by Simmons Oil, Inc. in the Torrance field, was disclosed this week. The wells are listed as C.O.C. Nos. 1 and 2, located in Section 6.

Abandonment of well No. 42 owned by Charles T. Rippey and Earl Robinett, located in Section 23, was filed this week with the State Division of Oil and Gas.

Oil field operations reported during the week ending Oct. 30, 1948, show 62 notices to drill new wells filed, as compared with 50 during the previous week.

Hear Talk by Sgt. Haslam

Police Sgt. Haslam spoke to the Greenstreaks Gra-Y Club last Monday night at the meeting held at Fern Avenue recreation hut. Forty boys were present at the YMCA Club meeting.

Haslam encouraged the boys in participation with their club, stating that it was good leadership training. He said that they would always have 22 friends in Torrance, that being the number of policemen on the force.

Affiliation is being made with the national Gra-Y fellowship of the national council of the YMCA. The club is open to boys ages 8 to 13 in the Fern Avenue district. Adult leadership is under the supervision of Bud Lee, Marvin Goetsch and Van Vanderpool.

Harbor Group Meets Tonight

The Harbor District Chambers of Commerce, of which the Torrance Chamber is a member, will hold its November general meeting this evening at Vernon's Coffee Shop in Long Beach.

Rear Admiral Thomas P. Wynkoop, commander of the Long Beach Naval Shipyard, will speak on "The Importance of the Shipyard to the Economy of the Harbor Area."
